Mr. William E. Colby
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Colby:

We are most appreciative of your valuable support of our Group Study Project on "Management of Intelligence Resources."

On 15 April, [redacted] spoke to the student group on the organization and role of the Central Intelligence Agency. He did an outstanding job in his discussion of the study area, established a good rapport with the members of the group, and gave concrete answers to the students' questions.

On 19 April, as you recall, the study group members visited the CIA. They received excellent briefings on the role of the Director of Central Intelligence and his staff. The students were most grateful for the time and effort you devoted to them in a very frank and successful give-and-take session. The briefings and round-table panel discussions with Rear Admiral Donald P. Harvey, USN, and the Staff Group Directors were most helpful and rewarding. Also, the briefing and tour of the CIA Operations Center conducted by [redacted] completed a most memorable and worthwhile visit.

Our special thanks are extended to [redacted] of the Office of Training, for arranging both the 15 April briefing and the field trip to CIA headquarters on the 19th.

Many thanks for an outstanding contribution to the objectives of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces.

Sincerely,

Walter J. Woolwine
